Good Morning:

As I live in Blandford, MA, I never saw such a site as I did when the ice storm hit late Thursday and Friday of last week. It is amazing to me to see how something so beautiful can also be so very destructive. We lost power for a few days; however, I know that others up North had it worse than us.

On my way home on Saturday night around 11:30pm on I-91 in West Springfield, MA - I came across a site to behold when I saw a convoy of McPhee Electric trucks heading North on the Interstate.

It is amazing how everyone pulls together to help out when something like this occurs. It brought tears to my eyes. This is what it is really all about.

Thanks to all of your crews that spent the time and effort doing a job that not every man could do. I really don't know how you all do it, but I am grateful that you do.

Have a wonderful holiday.
